

Sydney United to take on Sydney FC in charity match

NSW Premier League side Sydney United tackle Asian Champions League bound Sydney FC on Wednesday the 23rd of February at Sydney United Sports Centre with kick off scheduled for 7:30pm in a charity game for Queensland flood victims Rocklea United FC whose field and clubhouse were devastated in the recent floods.

The encounter will showcase some of the best talent in the NSW Premier League taking on the Sky Blues who will be hungry to put in a performance in gaining momentum and consistency for their Asian Champions League journey set to commence at the conclusion of the Hyundai A-League season.

Tickets are on sale now with Adults at $15 and concession / Child over 12 years at $10. Come and support a special cause, gates open at 5:30pm.

